November 2007

From the Co-ordinator

I must once again thank all of our wonderful volunteers, with out whom Gallery M would not continue to function. All of our shop helpers, our mail-out crew, our exhibition team and everyone else does a great job, and their assistance is so appreciated.

However, there are always some vacancies each week in our roster, so please remember to do your bit, especially if you have work in the shop on the lower rate of commission. Three hours a month is the minimum requirement for those whose work is priced with the 22% commission.

Fees reminders were sent out last month to those members who have not yet renewed, and those who have not paid will be removed from the mail-list. You can always re-join later with no penalty if you would like to continue to be involved in member exhibitions etc.

Don't forget we need your support to sell as many 2008 Gallery M calendars as we can. Just $9 with your discount, and they make a perfect Christmas gift.

See you soon at Gallery M - Julie

SAD NEWS

Red House member Heather Munchenberg passed away on 28 September. She had been ill for some time, but put up a brave fight and was even painting right up to the end.

Heather was a truly creative lady, and her favourite subjects were flowers and butterflies. Her beautifully crafted greeting cards were very popular in Gallery M, as were her paintings. Her painting "Poppy Mosaic" is featured as the April image in the Gallery M 2008 calendar.

She was a regular volunteer at Gallery M, and always approached even the most mundane task with good cheer and enthusiasm. Our sympathy to Heather's family. She will be sadly missed.
