Artwork in various media by members of the Red House Group Inc

This month Gallery M and the Red House Group are celebrating the 2009 SALA Festival period with an exciting new whole gallery exhibition: RH - 09.

Over ninety South Australian artists are showing their work, in a wide range of media. This is the first whole gallery exhibition for the Red House Group in some time, and Gallery M's lofty ceilings and large exhibition space is perfect for such a diverse exhibition.

The Red House Group Inc is an artist managed non-profit organisation that acts as a focus for art and cultural activities for all individuals and groups in the City of Marion council area and its surrounding region.

It formed in the early 1990's, and this year celebrates its fifteenth anniversary. Over 1,000 artists have become involved with the group since its inception, but membership remains at about 270 financial members each year.

A number of members have maintained an active interest in the Red House Group since those early years. Three Foundation members are exhibiting artwork in this exhibition -

Hare Krishna Bag is displaying a painting, Anne Thompson is showing one of her vibrant watercolours, and Marlie Unmuth a linocut collage with acrylic on canvas.

At the other end of the scale, recent member Christine Beck has created a hand made felt jacket and glass bead pendant, Agnes Szabo will be showing jewellery for the first time in a member exhibition, and Kaylene Scott has created a pastel drawing.

As well as paintings, drawings and printmaking, photography is also featured. Janine Paris and her daughter Tessa Manning are each showing their photographic skills. Stephanie Schrapel and Dian Morgan are recognised photographers whose work will also be on display.

Textile work includes Maria Hilder's exquisite freehand machine embroidery with hand stitching, and Jackie Pearce's beautiful machine embroidery on silk.

Timber artists are well represented with Mark Glowacki's hand crafted timber burl bowl, and a finely constructed wooden box by his grandfather Anthony Horsfall. Mike O'Donoghue has made a wooden sculpture, and Wilhem Kurvits has created a wooden plaque.

There are always interesting 3D pieces in a Red House member exhibition, such as Roger Hjørleifson's finely detailed hand built sculptures that are very collectable, as are glass sculptures by Stephen Skillitzi.

Some of the other artists showing 3D work are Anik Janyooyen (ceramic), Frans Kat (fused glass bowl), Amanda Lewis (hand crafted jewellery) and sculpture by Melinda Vincent and Astra Parker. Bev Whittington has made a piece in clay.

With such a diverse range of artwork on show, there will be something of interest to a broad audience. Many Red House Group members are recognised and well established artists. Alan Ramachandran, who has won a number of recent art awards, will have one of his highly sought after watercolours on display.

RH - 09 exhibition opening
6-8pm, Friday 7 August
Guest Speaker Mark Searle, Chief Executive Officer of the City of Marion will officially open the exhibition at 7pm.
Free entry, all welcome.

Opening nights of Red House Group member exhibitions are great social events - with beverages very generously donated by Patritti Wines, and a range of foods provided by the exhibiting artists.

Everyone is welcome - bring a friend and enjoy the hospitality of Gallery M.
