OCTOBER 2009

From the Co-ordinator

Hello again fellow members. I can't believe we are now approaching November - it has been such a busy year at Gallery M with lots of interesting exhibitions.

If you put work in the shop, start thinking now about items for Christmas. We will have a dedicated display for Christmas cards, decorations and themed items, but we also need items appropriate for gift giving. Bring your stock in as soon as possible so it can be processed and ready for display.

We still have a number of vacancies in our roster book. Coming up we need extra volunteers for the intake and hanging days of the Annual City of Marion exhibition, 24 - 26 November. Tasks include checking the paperwork as the artists deliver their work on Tuesday 24, and assisting with the hanging and display on the following days. We also need help serving at the "bar" on Sunday 29 November. Please let us know if you can assist.

The 2010 exhibition timetable is filling fast - see the information below if you would like to have your own or a shared exhibition.

The Board will be starting some discussions re future planning for the Red House Group - if you feel you have something to contribute, please let us know. Any input will be appreciated, and all members will be invited to offer opinions as the discussions move forward.

Hope to see you all again soon
Regards from Julie

MEMBER UPDATE

Welcome to new Red House Group members: Janine Young; Brian Garner; Pauline Miller; Kery Malec; Petronella Cavallaro; Stephanie McCarthy; Denva Whiting; Steve Duncan; and Lorraine Bromilow.

OPPORTUNITIES TO EXHIBIT AT GALLERY M

There are still a few vacancies on the Gallery M 2010 timetable. Because the space is so versatile, we can have up to four exhibitions running concurrently, using the large movable walls. A quarter gallery space can be a very cost effective way of having your first exhibition, or you can even share the space and costs involved with one or more other artists.

If you would like more information about having your own exhibition, please discuss with a staff member. Information can also be downloaded at www.gallerym.net.au

The Exhibition Committee meets monthly, and every proposal is considered with the view to having a balanced exhibition program featuring a wide range of media.

Don't delay - make 2010 your year to step up and show off your artwork.

pic of the month

Regular volunteer and long time Red House Group member Noelene Forbes - assisting with the display of cards at the Gallery M shop.

Volunteers help in many ways, including talking to customers, assisting with the pricing and placement of stock, and helping staff with administrative tasks. Most importantly, they provide a friendly face at the Gallery M counter, when the staff member on duty may be busy with jobs away from the front desk.

So - even when it may appear that there is not a lot to do, just being in the Gallery and shop area, and providing a physical presence, is very important.

GET WELL SOON

Several of our Red House Group members are not well at present. Best wishes to Jose Telleria, who is in Flinders Medical Centre after a recent heart attack. Jose is a much loved and long time member, and we hope he has a speedy and full recovery.

We also look forward to Shirley Ginsberg being able to resume her active role at Gallery M, as a valued member of the Exhibition Committee and Vice-Chairperson of the RHG Board. Shirley had a fall and badly injured her knee; but is making steady improvement. Regards Shirley from all your friends at Gallery M.

It was good to see Hans Lorenzen visiting the gallery after a painful recovery from broken ribs after a fall at home. We hope you are getting stronger Hans - we need some more of your great little wooden spinning tops to sell in the Gallery shop!

NEXT RED HOUSE GROUP MEMBER EXHIBITION
